

As a Christian, I enjoy the uplifting music K-LOVE plays. I feel the loss of K-LOVE would be devastating to the community because for some people it is their only source of Christian outreach. K-LOVE plays modern as well as older style of Christian music reaching a wide variety of audience, they play only clean music so all ages can listen without fear of offense.